

PROBATE SERVICES & HOUSE CLEARANCE

- No difficult decisions on what to keep, TOTAL house clearance.
- No heartache disposing of once cherished but unwanted items.
- No worrying. Waste disposed of legally and ethically.

House Clearances often have to be done at the worst time, especially when probate has been granted. The sad loss of a loved one can mean clearing a house of a lifetime collection of personal belongings, not necessarily financially valuable, but with enormous sentimental value to the previous owners.

As a natural addition to our professional waste management service and general house clearance, we undertake probate clearance, saving you both the hassle of clearance and further emotional distress at an already difficult time. A number of local law firms already bring their clients to us, but our friendly, professional office can also be approached directly for a competitive quote.

Benefits of our service:

We save you difficult decisions on what to keep with total house clearance.

We save you the heartache of disposing of a loved one's cherished but unwanted items.

We save you worrying with our expert disposal service, disposing of waste legally and in line with environmental regulations.
